

PROCESS TO FILE STATE DISABILITY

1. Should you have a non-work related injury, become sick or need surgery requiring you to be off work for 8 days or more and you have used up your N time, you are eligible for State Disability Insurance. However, you only have 49 days to file a claim to receive the full benefit amount.
2. The first week off work is a waiting period for your SDI and you will not receive any benefits from the state. On the 8th day, your state benefits begin after you and your medical provider have filled out the required state disability claim form at www.edd.ca.gov. The paper SDI claim form DE2501 Rev.81 may still be used if the online version is not accessible. The online method is preferred after March 1, 2013.
3. The Address and Phone number to use for UAL on the State Disability Form is:

United Airlines
609 Main Street
16th Floor / HSCPZ
Houston, Texas 77002

4. You will receive a debit card from the State of California (Bank of America) in the mail once your claim has been accepted.
5. If you have exhausted your N time sick leave bank, on the 17th day you will be placed on EIS per Article 10-E-2 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.
6. You should contact your Local Union's dues department for information regarding dues payments or payment suspensions. Local 856: 650-635-0111 or Local 986: 626-350-9860 ext. 112.
